iaedp Announces Top 5 Finalists for Imagine Me Art Competition

PEKIN, IL (Feb. 3, 2015) -- The International Association of Eating Disorders Professionals (iaedp) announces the 2015 top five finalists in the 5th annual “Imagine Me Beyond What You See” body image mannequin art competition, sponsored by ASCENDchc. Selected from 18 submissions from the United States and Canada, the top five finalists will be showcased and the winner revealed at the 30th annual iaedp 2015 Symposium, March 19 – 22 in Phoenix.

Entries included mannequins created in collaboration between clients, residents, counselors, and art therapists from treatment centers, both residential and outpatient, hospitals, private practice, researcher/health coach, graduate student and artist. The mixed-medium works are judged on clarity of theme, creativity and originality, quality of composition and design and the overall impression and presentation of the artwork. The 2015 judges include Michelle Dean, MA, ATR-BC, LPC, CG, Board Certified Art Psychotherapist and Professional Member of American Art Therapy Association; Fritz Liedtke, Photographic Fine Artist and author; and Leigh Cohn, MAT, CEDS, author, artist and owner of Gurze Books.

“The diverse and creative responses to this year’s challenge were inspiring, and I appreciated the artists’ efforts to push the boundaries of form, structure, and identity through their visual representations,” says Michelle Dean. “Reading through the descriptions, I was particularly struck by the powerful themes of warrior and journeyer. I wish the courageous individuals who participated in this project and those who are not yet on their journey, the strength and fortitude to claim their path of recovery.”
